

Thank you for supporting De Smet School's Beef to School program!

What is farm to school?

Farm to School (F2S) connects children with a source of food, improves health and education outcomes, and inspires youth toward careers in agriculture.

What is beef to school?

Beef to School (B2S) program is a specific part of the Farm to School program that provides local beef to serve in school meals through a donation-based program made possible by generous donors, producers & processors.

Benefits of the Beef to School Program

- Serving locally raised beef in our school
- Providing students with higher quality meat
- Reduces district food costs
- Donation is tax deductible

How can I support De Smet's B2S Program?

- Monetary donations to support animal product or processing expenses through PayPal. Donations can also be dropped off or mailed to:

De Smet School District
Attn: Beef to School Program
405 Third Street SW, PO Box 157
De Smet, SD 57231

- Live Animal, including:
 - Market Steers (1000-1500 lbs)
 - Open Heifers (under two years of age)
 - Cull Cows and Cull Bull-processed into pure ground beef patties

Questions, please contact:

Blake Hojer, Kingsbury County Cattlemen's Association
Cassi Johnson, De Smet School District Business Manager

DONATE
NOW!

